

Faculty Spotlight

Mary J. Dyck, Ph.D., RN, LNHA
Professor

Biography

Dr. Dyck is an experienced gerontological nurse researcher with experience in teaching, clinical care, and service in nursing homes. Her six years as a nursing home administrator provide passion for her work. The focus of her research agenda is nursing home quality.

Teaching Interest

Gerontological Nursing, Executive Nursing Leadership and Biopsychological Research of Aging Individuals are just some of the courses taught by Dr. Dyck at Illinois State University.

Research Interest

Nursing Home Quality

News

Dr. Dyck was recently featured in an article: Nursing faculty conduct dementia research at retirement community

Office
Edwards Hall 219

Office Phone
(309) 438-2547

Department Phone
(309) 438-7400

Fax
(309) 438-4410

Email
mjdyck@IllinoisState.edu